Welcome to a brand-new year. I think we have all probably forgotten that 2020 existed, I know I have.

I am sure we have all suffered trials and tribulations and I would now hope that everyone is getting back on track. I also hope, that none of you took ill and if so, are now well again.

So Business and Professional Women of Calusa, is still operating. Your board did meet at times during the past 8 months.

Leah is going to renew everyone – State has waived our fees for this year and at our last board meeting it was unanimously passed that BPW Calusa would do the same.

We do have another member: Melissa Rogers – Welcome and she has hit the ground running. Melissa is going to be putting out a brief newsletter each month – online only. I feel you will have a nice read.

Our website is back up and running – our apologies for it being down for around 6 weeks.

We are now commencing our in-person membership meetings in March 24th After much searching, we have decided to go with Roses Bistro 6.00pm. They will have a set menu that I am sure we can change periodically.

I am Vice Chair for the conference this year, which is being held at Saddlebrook Golf and Country Club. More on that as there is an executive meeting Monday 8th.

I have definitely missed all your smiling faces over the past months, and sure look forward to seeing you all again.

There are things happening with State which should enhance us as an LO. When I have more news on that I will convey to you all.

BPW Calusa: We need to get back to whatever is normal and start to function and plan again.

Please reach out to me with anything you would like addressed, done, or just to say hi.

Thanks

Jackie Skelton
